ED GOLD MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Based in San Francisco, Ed conducts fundraising auctions for non-profit organizations all over the country. His diverse client list ranges from the New York International Wine Festival to Children’s Hospital Colorado.

Ed has led a life that reads like a movie script—so it’s only fitting that he started off in Hollywood as a kid. His father was a producer and Ed grew up on studio back-lots, playing cowboys on the sets of Westerns. Surrounded by luminaries from such a young age, Ed quickly became accustomed to being near the limelight, if not squarely in it. Once he set out on his own, Ed took a path around the globe. He spent years as Cat Stevens’ right-hand man, touring the world with the musician at the height of his popularity.

It was inevitable that Ed would return to Hollywood, and he spent twenty years in the entertainment business, starting as a technician and then working his way up to creating, writing, and producing projects for television and the big screen: ranging from CBS’s award winning movie Kids Like These to Disney’s Operation Dumbo Drop. In recognition of his work, Ed received the Easter Seals Communication Award, Media Access Award, Christopher Award, and Rehabilitation Congress of America Award.

After deciding to take a break from “Hollywood” Ed moved to Northern California with his wife, Joanne, and spent years raising their two sons and staying active in charity organizations like the Muscular Dystrophy Association, City of Hope, and Big Brothers & Big Sisters of the Bay Area. Ed then cofounded Stellar Fundraising Auctions with Greg Quiroga in 2014. Ed is a member of the National Auctioneers Association and a certified Benefit Auction Specialist.
